

Teaching Spelling within your K-3 writing program

Robyn Wild is a literacy consultant and ecec committee member. She will be discussing how spelling can best be taught as part of the class writing program and how it can fit neatly within a balanced literacy program. This afternoon participants will:

- reflect on their practice, as teachers of spelling
- see where spelling fits within the writing program
- decide what to teach by assessing students' writing
- investigate methods which effectively teach spelling strategies and habits
- browse effective spelling resources
- receive an ecec publication, the Current Topics "Spelling", free.
