

An introduction to Big Write, Big Talk and VCOP a method for raising standards in writing

Repeat course: Back by popular demand!

Rachel Chatten teaches Kindergarten and science at Bondi Beach PS. She has taught in England, where she was introduced to Big Write, a program developed by Ros Wilson. This program helps to raise standards in writing. Rachel will describe her literacy sessions and explain how focusing on VCOP (Vocabulary, Connectives, Openings and Punctuation) in a fun and engaging way, entices her young students to write well and to want to write.
